LONDON AQUARIUM

British waters

Can you find all of the answers and fill in the word chain, don't forget the last letter of each answer is the first letter of the next!!!
All of the answers can be found by the Atlantic tank, ray pool and in temperate waters (zones 2 & 6-8)

1.						2.
				5.				4.		3.
		6.						7.

1. When the tide goes out this type of anemone retracts its tentacles and looks like a blob of gelatine (7)
2. This type of flatfish can be found in the Atlantic tank and has adopted an inactive lifestyle to avoid predation (6)
3. This is the largest species of gurnard that can be found in European waters (3)
4. This is typically a warm water fish, but can be found off the south coast of England, Gilthead.... (5)
5. This fish can reach speeds up to 40 km per hour (8)
6. This species can live for up to 30 years, when it grows it has to shed its shell and has blue blood (7)
7. Spotted, thornback and undulate are all types of.... (3)

In the temperate marine section of the aquarium we have several species of wrasse. What can you find out about wrasse and their behaviour? _____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____